Description

Imagine waking up each morning to breathtaking mountain views and the peaceful beauty of the Upstate countryside. This stunning 5-acre tract on Cockrell Road in Greer offers the perfect canvas to create the home and lifestyle you've always dreamed about. With a beautiful mix of open space and mature hardwood trees, the property provides both room to roam and the natural charm that makes country living so special. Picture your dream home perfectly positioned to capture the mountain scenery, with plenty of space for gardens, outdoor living areas, a workshop, or simply enjoying the quiet privacy that acreage provides. Whether you envision a modern farmhouse, a private retreat, or a custom estate, this property gives you the freedom and space to bring your vision to life. For those who desire even more room, additional acreage is available, with all tracts being a minimum of 5 acres, helping preserve the open, peaceful character of the surrounding land. Opportunities like this are becoming harder to find—beautiful acreage, mountain views, and the chance to build exactly what you want. Come walk the property and start imagining the possibilities.
