Description

Come see this beautifully maintained home that is a perfect starter home or a perfect downsizing home. The open living space is warm and inviting as you come in off the front porch to a comfortable living room and dining room combo. The kitchen with newer appliances overlooks the great room so you won't miss out on anything when entertaining. The laundry room sits off of the garage and is generously sized. Continuing down the hall, the Primary bedroom sits to the left with a walk in closet and spacious bathroom. The secondary bedrooms flank the guest bath and are all located down the right side of the hall. The back door of the home takes you into a private back yard that overlooks a tree line for privacy and peace.
