Description

NOT TOO BIG. NOT TOO SMALL. THIS ONE MAY BE JUST RIGHT! Welcome to 101 Constantine Way, where smart use of space meets easy, comfortable living. If you're tired of paying for rooms you rarely use—or maintaining more house than you really want—this inviting Greer home may be your “JUST RIGHT.” Step inside and you'll immediately notice the fresh, move-in-ready feel, with new luxury vinyl plank flooring, freshly painted interiors and a bright, open living plan that brings the great room, kitchen and dining area together. The vaulted ceiling adds volume overhead, while the open sightlines make the heart of the home feel connected and welcoming. The kitchen has been refreshed with new quartz countertops and an eye-popping backsplash, refinished cabinetry, stainless-steel appliances and updated hardware, making this a home where the work has already been done by the pros! This floor plan makes smart use of approximately 1,600 sqft, with three bedrooms and two baths plus a large upstairs flex room that adds versatility to the homeowner's lifestyle. Need a home office? Guest retreat? Media room? Homeschool space? Home gym? This flex space can change as your life does. Outside, you'll find a fenced backyard and patio ready for pets, play, grilling or evenings around a future fire pit. And with a two-car garage, you don't have to sacrifice practical storage just because you've chosen a more manageable home. Throughout the listing photos, look for virtually staged images placed beside the original rooms to help demonstrate furniture scale, layout possibilities and just how well these spaces can live. Sometimes bigger isn't better. Sometimes smaller isn't enough. Sometimes you're lucky enough to find the house that's just right. Come see if 101 Constantine Way is your kind of JUST RIGHT!!
