Description

Located on the western side of Longview Carolina, this 0.88-acre lot offers convenient access to the Pinnacle Pavilion and its 50+ mile views of the Upstate, along with the fireside patios and the community chicken coop. Site work has already been completed in preparation for a build, and thinning of the trees has opened up long-range views from the homesite. The lot's natural slope is well suited to a walk-out basement. Located in a beautiful, gated agrihood in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Longview Carolina is where nature meets convenience. This unique community is just minutes from Downtown Easley and conveniently positioned only 25 minutes from Greenville and Clemson. Developed by the same visionary behind Riverstead and the Cliffs Communities, Longview Carolina is a 180-acre resilient living community designed for those who value sustainability, connection, and lifelong learning. Residents enjoy hiking and biking trails, a swimming pool and pickleball courts, and a working organic farm where neighbors pitch in through farm work days and share in the harvest. Discover what it means to live "World's Apart, Yet Minutes Away!"
