The main living area features wood beam accents, a fireplace, and tile flooring throughout the main level, including the luxurious first-floor master suite. The impressive 532-square-foot bonus and entertainment room was designed for fun, complete with surround sound, shiplap accent walls, mini-split heating and cooling, and plenty of space for game days, movie nights, or entertaining guests. French doors create seamless access to the outdoor living areas, making this home ideal for gatherings. The private first-floor master suite offers a large walk-in closet, double vanity, attachable toilet bidet, beautifully tiled walk-in shower with pebble stone flooring and glass accents, stylish barn door details, and sliders leading directly to the back deck.
