Description

Excellent investment or development opportunity in a well-established neighborhood just minutes from downtown Greenville. This R-15 zoned lot offers outstanding potential for investors, builders, or buyers looking to construct a custom home. With no HOA restrictions and double-wide manufactured homes permitted, the property provides exceptional flexibility for a variety of residential uses. Sewer is available at the road, adding to its development potential. The seller acquired the property through a tax deed. Buyer and/or buyer's agent should verify lot dimensions, zoning, utilities, permitted uses, and all other information important to their intended use. This is a traditional sale and is not an auction.
