Description

This beautiful one-and-a-half-story home welcomes you with soaring ceilings in the kitchen and family room, creating an open, light-filled space that immediately feels warm and inviting. Natural light pours in, highlighting a layout that's perfect for both everyday living and effortless entertaining. At the heart of the home is a thoughtfully designed chef's kitchen with plenty of space for cooking, gathering, and hosting friends and family. Just steps away, the cozy family room with its inviting fireplace creates the perfect place to relax at the end of the day. Two guest bedrooms and the primary bedroom conveniently located on the main-level and two full bathrooms provide flexibility for guests or comfortable main-floor living. Upstairs, you have a large bedroom, full bathroom and a spacious bonus room that offers endless possibilities. Whether you imagine it as a guest retreat, home office, media room, or creative hobby space, it's a versatile area that can easily adapt to your needs. Step outside to the screened-in back patio and enjoy the peaceful surroundings year-round. The neighborhood is nestled among mature trees and natural beauty, with everyday conveniences that are just minutes from your door, including grocery stores, restaurants, shopping, and local farmers markets. Best of all, you're only about ten minutes from Clemson, giving you easy access to the area without the added Clemson city taxes. This home offers a rare combination of natural beauty, comfort, and convenience—an inviting place where it's easy to imagine settling in and enjoying life. SWU has track, driving range, Pickle ball, that you can use and there are hike and bike trails you can walk to. Price reflects cash purchase or use of Preferred Mortgage Company.
