Description

Set in a Lowcountry neighborhood surrounded by marshland, this custom-built home offers marsh views from the second-level porch and exceptional spaces designed for indoor-outdoor living. Outside, an impressive kitchen features a built-in grill, sink, dishwasher, concrete countertops, and wet bar, complemented by an outdoor shower, brick patios, mature palms, and a separate gathering area with a wood-burning fire pit. Neighborhood water access makes launching a kayak and enjoying the surrounding waterways effortless. Inside, dual primary suites, one on the main level and one upstairs offer exceptional flexibility. Thoughtful upgrades throughout include a Lutron lighting system, custom trim and wainscoting, under-cabinet and island lighting, tinted windows, and elevator-ready construction. At ground level, nearly 1,300 additional square feet of heated and cooled flex space, converted from a portion of the garage, is currently enjoyed as a custom gym and game room with a pool table. The remaining garage features epoxy floors with additional parking and storage. Full irrigation, mature landscaping, and extensive indoor and outdoor upgrades make this home unmatched!
