Description

HIGH END FEEL WITHOUT THE HIGH END PRICE TAG! 112 Purdy Road proves that affordability does not have to mean sacrificing style, space, or quality. Set on 1.37 acres in Iva, this brand new 3 bedroom, 2 bath home delivers an impressive combination of thoughtful design and beautiful finishes that gives buyers exceptional value for their money. Inside, the bright open floor plan immediately draws you into a spacious living area and an oversized island kitchen designed to be the heart of the home. Generous cabinetry, attractive finishes, ample workspace, and an easy flow into the dining and living areas create a space that feels both polished and comfortable. The bedroom layout is thoughtfully arranged, giving the primary bedroom its own comfortable sense of separation while the two secondary bedrooms create useful space for family, overnight guests, hobbies, or everyday life. Outside, the 1.37ac setting gives you room to breathe, garden, entertain, add a workshop, or simply enjoy a little more privacy than neighborhood living typically allows. With brand new construction, low maintenance living, and a level of style and finish that feels far beyond its price point, this home is an opportunity to get more house, more land, and more value for your money.
