Description

OPPORTUNITY OPPORTUNITY!! More than 6.5 acres on Old Highway 52 near Gippy Plantation and close to Moncks Corner and Goose Creek. This property does have a house on the property and a 2-car detached garage with little value, but certainly usable. There is county water and sewer at the property. This would be a great opportunity for your commercial or residential development based on county approval. Currently the property is adjacent to the Town of Moncks Corner annexed property so if you want to annex into the town, this could be a simple process. The property next door is also on the market at almost 9 acres. Buyer to verify anything deemed important.
