Description

130 Preston Ridge Drive is a beautifully appointed, low-maintenance townhome with functional design and seamless main level living in a desirable Seneca location. The open floor plan is immediately highlighted by vaulted ceilings in the living room and accented with crown molding that flows throughout the home. A gas log fireplace anchors this space. The well-equipped kitchen is practical with timeless finishes—granite countertops, stainless steel appliances and abundant storage. Just off of the main living/dining area sits the primary suite. This spacious bedroom features tray ceilings and a well equipped ensuite primary bath. Accoutrements here include the vanity with a double sink, a walk-in tile shower, soaking tub and generous walk-in closet. An additional bedroom with a conveniently located bath is on the opposite end of the home. Here you also find a versatile, window-lined office and keeping room space with French doors. Rounding off the home is a generous laundry room featuring a utility sink and plenty of space to keep daily routines organized just off of the garage. The attached two-car garage and its dedicated storage room provides even more storage/space for parking, organization, and all of life's extras. Townhome living in Preston Ridge comes with its perks—all exterior building and lawn maintenance are professionally managed by the HOA, and residents enjoy a friendly, walkable neighborhood positioned in a premier locale. You are just a short drive away from Seneca shopping, dining and grocers and medical facilities. Life feels a little bit easier at 130 Preston Ridge Drive!
