Description

Welcome to your next charming home in the mountains! 141 McJunkin Drive boasts the best blend of charm, comfort & style. This traditional all brick ranch is located a short, scenic, drive from downtown Pickens, the Doodle trail , grocery stores, restaurants and more. Upon arrival you'll immediately notice the large yard , quiet neighborhood & if you're lucky you may get to meet the greeting committee (Ford & June). Inside you'll appreciate the flexible living spaces, including 3 sitting rooms to be styled and set up in the most functional way for your family. The updated kitchen flashes crisp, white, cabinets and backsplash. As you travel through the home make sure to take your time and appreciate the charming little details in every corner. The back of the home hosts 3 spacious bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. Also notice the storage opportunities with a storage room in the attached carport, attic and closets. Of the many things to love about this property- the current owners favorite is location. Being a 30 minute drive to Greenville, 20 minutes to Lake Keowee, 10 minutes to Table Rock & a few hours to the beach make this mountain home location ideal for so many. Come see for yourself what makes this property special today!!
