Description

Welcome to 147 Hidden Valley Rd., a beautifully maintained home in Aynor, South Carolina, offering the perfect combination of modern comfort, outdoor living, and spacious country-style privacy. Built in 2021 and thoughtfully cared for, this home is move-in ready and offers the benefits of newer construction without the wait or hassle of building. Step inside to discover a welcoming interior featuring durable LVP flooring throughout the main living areas and solid-surface countertops that provide both style and functionality. The kitchen is equipped with stainless steel appliances and offers an inviting space for preparing meals, entertaining guests, or enjoying everyday life. An attached garage provides convenient parking and additional storage. The outdoor spaces truly set this property apart. A charming front porch welcomes you home, while the covered rear patio creates an ideal setting for relaxing or entertaining year-round. Step beyond the covered patio onto the custom decking, where you'll find a small above-ground pool creating your own private outdoor retreat. Whether you're enjoying a quiet afternoon, hosting friends and family, or simply soaking up the South Carolina sunshine, this backyard offers plenty of opportunities to enjoy the outdoors. Situated on more than 0.6 acres, this property provides room to spread out and enjoy your surroundings without the restrictions of an HOA. The spacious lot offers flexibility for outdoor activities, gardening, entertaining, or simply enjoying the added privacy that comes with having additional land. If you've been searching for a newer, well-maintained home with modern finishes, desirable outdoor living spaces, an attached garage, and plenty of land — all without an HOA — 147 Hidden Valley Rd. is one you won't want to miss. Come see everything this exceptional Aynor property has to offer!
