Description

Tucked away in historic Kingstree, South Carolina, 149 Nathan Road is a rare hidden gem where timeless Southern charm meets modern comfort and unforgettable outdoor living. Set on an impressive 16.20-acre private property, this custom-built 3-bedroom, 2-bath brick home offers a peaceful escape from the everyday hustle while providing plenty of space to relax, entertain, explore, and enjoy the natural beauty surrounding you. Step outside and discover the centerpiece of this extraordinary property—a cypress pond, fully stocked for fishing and enhanced by a soothing fountain. A charming custom pond house and picturesque bridge add to the property's storybook character, creating a truly special setting for quiet mornings, afternoon fishing, or evenings spent taking in the scenery. The home's distinctive “Old Charleston” style exterior adds a touch of Lowcountry elegance and timeless appeal, while the custom construction provides the comfort and functionality today's homeowners' desire. And despite the secluded feel, you're only about five minutes from Gilland Memorial Park and the Black River, putting outdoor recreation and the natural beauty of the area close at hand.
