Description

All Brick-Colonial Style home is only a 25 minute drive to the beach and offers the size and amenities you won't find anywhere else. With no HOA!. Enter through the grand double height foyer with a crystal chandelier and turn right into the casual family room with a gas fireplace or left into the formal living room with a gas fireplace, or straight to the curving staircase to access the upstairs bedrooms. Pocket doors and wooden doors separate the formal and casual areas of the home. The large kitchen can be accessed through the family room or through the swinging door from the dining room offering both a breakfast bar and a breakfast area, along with stainless steel appliances, double ovens, large pantry, stainless apron sink, and granite counters. wooden floors, tankless water heater with natural gas. The island has a new natural gas cooktop with a downdraft vent fan. Off the family room is a very large bedroom, and dual access to a full bathroom. The laundry room is spacious and is only steps down away from the living areas. This house has abundant amount of storage space with multiple closets in each large bedroom. Up the central curving staircase from the foyer (with true crystal chandeliers) are three additional bedrooms and two bathrooms. There is also attic storage. In addition to all this indoor space, there is a large 3 season porch with access to the back yard and an additional room that can be converted back into a two car garage. A lot of potential for outdoor gardening . A must see to take it all in !
