Description

Welcome to 185 Thames Avenue -- a charming 3-bedroom, 2-bath brick-front traditional offering 1,845 square feet, nestled in a quiet cul de sac, on a generous .27-acre lot in the popular Newington Plantation subdivision of Summerville. Step through the classic red door and you'll find brand-new carpet just installed throughout the living areas and bedrooms, paired with fresh, neutral paint that makes the whole home feel bright and move-in ready. The vaulted great room is the showstopper -- anchored by a fireplace and framed by two sets of sliding glass doors that pour in natural light and open to the large screened back porch. The spacious eat-in kitchen offers an abundance of white cabinetry, a full appliance package (refrigerator excluded), a sunny window over the sink, and a dining area with plenty of room to gather. Upstairs, a large vaulted bonus space flexes easily as a media room, home office, or guest retreat to fit your needs. The secondary bedrooms sit at the front of the home, both with fresh carpet and fresh paint. At the back, the large primary suite features two closets -- including a walk-in -- dual vanities, and a separate area housing the garden tub/shower combo and toilet. Out back, the screened porch overlooks a fully fenced, tree-lined backyard -- your own private space for morning coffee or weekend cookouts. A large shed offers extra storage for lawn equipment, while a two-car garage and long driveway round out the everyday function. Location is a standout: within walking distance of Newington Elementary and just a quick drive to downtown Summerville via the Berlin G. Myers Parkway extension. You're minutes from shops, dining, and everyday conveniences while tucked into an established, well-loved neighborhood. This home is in need of some additional TLC and is priced accordingly -- a great opportunity to add value and make it your own.
