Description

Welcome to 1900 High Street, a charming home located in the heart of Columbia, South Carolina. This residence boasts three spacious bedrooms and one freshly updated bathroom, featuring a convenient step-in shower that enhances accessibility and comfort. The third bedroom is particularly versatile, providing ample space to function as either an additional sleeping area or a cozy second living room, tailored to your lifestyle needs. Upon entering the home, you are greeted by a covered front porch and convenient accessibility ramp that invites you to enjoy the outdoors. This area serves as a perfect spot to relax and unwind, offering a welcoming transition into the heart of the home. The layout promotes a natural flow from room to room, making it ideal for both daily living and entertaining. Further inside, you will discover a warm living area adorned with sunlight, creating a vibrant atmosphere. The additional living space is complemented by a practical upstairs room that could serve multiple purposes, including a home office or hobby space. The kitchen showcases functional design with ample storage and counter space, making meal preparation efficient and enjoyable. Adjacent to the kitchen is a cozy dining area that sets the scene for shared meals and gatherings. For those in need of extra storage or workspace, the property features a cellar downstairs, adding to the home's practicality. The lot surrounding the house offers potential for outdoor projects or gardening, providing room to further enhance the beautiful landscaping. This property combines functionality with charm, making it an excellent choice for anyone looking to establish a home in Columbia. Whether you are a first-time buyer or seeking a new opportunity, this residence is ready to welcome you. Make 1900 High Street your next address! Home is being sold AS-IS.
