Description

For those who seek the quality construction of an older brick home in a quaint town, let me introduce you to 207 Hampton Street E in Bethune, SC. A new roof was installed in April 2026, ensuring confidence and peace of mind for the new owner. Each room has been updated with fresh paint, new flooring and lighting. As an added aesthetic, the ceilings have been retouched with a smooth surface (save the popcorn for movie nights). You will love the cozy living room featuring a brick fireplace and a dining area off the side. The kitchen has been thoughtfully re-imagined with granite countertops and new cabinetry with a possibility of an appliance allowance. Just off of the kitchen is a half bath with a brand new vanity, toilet and a space for a washer and dryer. Down the hall you will find 3 ample sized bedrooms and 1 full bath. The seller decided to leave the wood paneling in one of the bedrooms for those who enjoy the warm, inviting feel of the wood grain. The yards are beautifully shaded with mature trees and perfect spots for a tire swing and tree house. An added convenience is the carport located just outside the kitchen for easy grocery hauls. The HVAC and water heater are approximately 4-6 years old. There are 2 sheds in the back yard, great for storing your lawnmower and tools. This home would be perfect for anyone just starting out, a new family or empty nesters looking to down size. Great location for anyone who works at Ahlstrom in town OR Oceana Gold in Kershaw! Zoned for North Central schools and a short drive to larger nearby towns, you could be living the small town life by the upcoming holidays. Call me or your realtor for a private showing today!
