Description

One-of-a-kind opportunity in highly sought-after Riverland Terrace! Built in 1927, this classic 3 bedroom, 2.5 bath home is one of the original residences in The Terrace and is rich with timeless character. Inside, you'll find beautifully preserved original unpainted wood trim, original hardwood floors, and a charming sunroom that fills the home with natural light and historic appeal. This famous home and gardens are featured in home and garden tours. Front and rear screen porches and multiple garden seating areas add to the charm. The home also features a full basement with cement floors, and a garage. The finished insulated attic has HVAC (not included in the square footage), providing added options. A rare chance to own a true piece of Riverland Terrace history.
