Description

Located near Smithfield's Country Club, this thoughtfully designed Easley home offers the ideal blend of functionality, comfort, and entertaining space, all within an easy drive to downtown Easley and Greenville. The main level features two bedrooms, including a spacious primary suite, providing flexibility for guests or a dedicated home office. Upstairs, a third bedroom and bonus room create the perfect private retreat, media space, or playroom. Soaring ceilings and an open floor plan enhance the sense of space, while a formal dining room adds definition and sophistication, making this home equally suited for everyday living and hosting friends. Lovely hardwood floors anchor the main living areas, and the seamless flow between kitchen and living spaces makes gathering effortless. Outdoor living is equally inviting, with a covered front porch ideal for morning coffee or evening conversations, and a rear deck offering space to relax or entertain. Set in a great walking neighborhood, this home encourages an active, connected lifestyle. With proximity to golf, shopping, dining, and major commuter routes, this Easley home delivers the layout today's buyers want paired with the lifestyle they'll love. Seller concession available for cosmetic updates.
