Description

Better than move-in ready — this 2025-built home is practically brand new - without the wait of building! Located at the quiet end of a cul-de-sac in Easley, this beautiful 3-bedroom, 2-full-bath home offers a peaceful setting with no backyard neighbors, giving you added privacy and a relaxing place to call home. Built in 2025 and vacant for several months, the home is ready for its next owner. Inside, you'll find a bright, modern layout featuring beautiful granite countertops and durable LVP flooring throughout the main living areas. The kitchen comes fully equipped with a gas range, microwave, dishwasher, and refrigerator, all installed when the home was built. A washer and dryer are also included, making the transition into your new home even easier. The security system conveys with the property as well. Location is another highlight! You'll be in close proximity to The Silos, Southern Weaving, and downtown Easley, putting local shopping, dining, entertainment, and community amenities conveniently within reach. Step outside and enjoy the benefits of homeownership in this welcoming community, including access to the beautiful community pool — perfect for relaxing, cooling off, and enjoying the warmer months. With its 2025 construction, modern finishes, included appliances, private cul-de-sac location, community pool, and convenient Easley location, 239 Mable Leaf Lane offers the feel of a brand-new home without the wait of new construction. Come see for yourself — this one is ready to welcome you home!
