Description

There's something special about waking up 11 floors above the Atlantic, where the light hits the water first and everything else can wait. Unit 1101 at Bay Watch Resort is a fully furnished oceanfront retreat that's already set up for effortless enjoyment and strong rental performance. Whether you're looking for a place to escape to, or a coastal property that works for you when you're not here, this one is ready from day one. The views from this level are hard to beat---wide, open stretches of shoreline and those unforgettable sunrises that guests remember long after they leave. Inside, the layout is simple, efficient, and comfortable, making it an easy fit for couples, weekend travelers, and repeat vacationers year after year. Bay Watch Resort adds to the appeal with the kind of amenities people specifically search for---multiple pools, lazy river, hot tubs, fitness center, on-site dining, and direct beach access. Everything is designed to make staying here feel easy, fun, and stress-free. Just minutes from Main Street in North Myrtle Beach, golf courses, restaurants, and entertainment, the location keeps guests coming back in every season. This is a true turnkey coastal property---furnished, established, and positioned in one of the most consistently in-demand resorts on the Grand Strand.
