Description

Some neighborhoods give you an address. Rivers Edge Plantation gives you a lifestyle. Tucked along the Waccamaw River, this gated community feels like a retreat from the moment you arrive. Winding roads, mature trees, water, wildlife and a pace that invites you to spend a little more time outside. This custom Chase Signature home was designed to take full advantage of that setting. Inside, vaulted ceilings, natural wood beams and a gas fireplace create a warm, welcoming gathering space, while the kitchen offers custom cabinetry, granite countertops, two generous islands and a built-in wine bar made for entertaining. But here, some of the best living happens outside. Multiple outdoor spaces offer a place to relax under the trees, evenings with friends, or simply watching the landscape change with the seasons. The backyard overlooks a peaceful natural setting where water, mature trees and local wildlife become part of the everyday view. The boat ramp and dock are just one lot away, putting access to the Waccamaw River practically at your doorstep, while the community pool sits directly across the street. Rivers Edge Plantation also offers close proximity to Conway, the beach, shopping, dining and miles of nearby hiking and biking trails within easy reach. If you've never experienced Rivers Edge Plantation, this is the kind of place that is difficult to appreciate from a map. You don't simply live near the Waccamaw. You get to make it part of the way you live.
