Description

A single-family residence situated in an established residential neighborhood within Lexington County. The surrounding area is characterized by mature landscaping, well-maintained homes, and a quiet suburban setting with modest lot sizes. The property reflects typical mid-20th-century construction and offers a practical floor plan commonly featuring three bedrooms and two bathrooms, with potential updates depending on prior renovations. The lot provides functional outdoor space suitable for everyday use and low-maintenance living. Conveniently located in West Columbia, the property offers straightforward access to local schools, retail centers, major transportation routes, and downtown Columbia.
