Description

Tucked away from the bustle of Hwy 544 within Windsor Plantation, Berwick Townhomes offers a peaceful retreat with the convenience of being close to everything Myrtle Beach has to offer. This spacious 1,884 heated-square-foot garden home built in 2016 features an inviting, open layout with the primary suite, primary bath, powder room, utility room, kitchen with island, a walk-in pantry, and a screened porch all on the first floor. Upstairs, two generous bedrooms and a large loft provide plenty of space for guests, an office, hobbies, or a second living area. All three bedrooms can accommodate king-size beds, offering flexibility rarely found in a townhome. The HOA takes care of exterior maintenance, allowing you to spend less time worrying about upkeep and more time enjoying your home. Residents also enjoy a community pool and well-maintained common areas. Conveniently located near shopping, dining, major roadways, and the Grand Strand's beaches. Come take a look and see what your life could look like at Berwick.
