3029 Southerly Way - "Kingfisher" is a waterfront bungalow located along a quiet creek within the Kiawah River community. Part of a limited collection of furnished boathouse-style residences, these bungalows offer a peaceful setting with scenic marsh and river views. The property is within walking distance of The Dunlin, Auberge Resorts Collection and just a short drive to Freshfields Village, Kiawah Island, and Seabrook Island, with historic Charleston approximately 25 minutes away. The second-floor residence features a king bedroom, walk-in shower with tub, and a kitchenette equipped with a cooktop, microwave, dishwasher, mini refrigerator, stand-alone ice maker, and Keurig-style coffee maker. A private porch provides a comfortable place to take in the surrounding creek and marsh views. There are 16 exterior steps to access the property, and an outdoor shower is located beneath the bungalow in the garage area. Residents and guests can enjoy the many amenities and outdoor experiences offered within Kiawah River, including walking and biking trails, tennis and pickleball courts, Rosebank Farm, and nearby opportunities for kayaking, boating, and fishing. Optional access to the Spring House Amenity Center, which includes a fitness center, pools, hot tub, and sauna.
