Description

Step inside and the drama begins immediately. Soaring ceilings crown an open floor plan where the great room, dining, and kitchen flow together in a seamless sweep of warm timber, natural light, and a magnificent stone fireplace that becomes the very soul of the home. At over 3,300 square feet four bedroom and four full bath, the scale is generous without ever feeling sprawling. The primary suite anchors the main level in deliberate seclusion — a private sanctuary with the river as its backdrop. Upstairs, two generously proportioned bedrooms each command their own en-suite bath. A loft crowns the upper level, equally suited as a library, studio, or quiet morning refuge overlooking the treetops. Property Highlights • Authentic log cabin construction • Direct river frontage • Grand stone fireplace • Wraparound porch • First-level primary suite • Two en-suite upper bedrooms and office/bedroom on the first floor • Open-concept great room with soaring ceilings • Upper loft / flex space • Two detached garages • No HOA — no restrictions • Private setting with easy access to Conway and Myrtle Beach The wraparound porch is where days begin and end. Two detached garages provide ample room for boats, vehicles, and everything that life on the water requires. Plus being gated adds that extra privacy and security. With no HOA to answer to, this property is yours to enjoy entirely on your own terms. The location strikes a rare balance: genuine seclusion and natural privacy, yet the restaurants, shopping, and conveniences of Conway and the Grand Strand are always close at hand. Please keep in mind that all square footage and details on the property should be verified by the Buyer.
