Description

Built in 2017 and set on more than a third of an acre, 3367 Dunwick Drive offers room to spread out, a private backyard, and a peaceful Johns Island setting, all at a price below market value! Mature landscaping and natural beauty surround the property, giving the home a sense of retreat while keeping you close to the places that make Charleston such a wonderful place to live. Inside, the living spaces are ready for both everyday comfort and entertaining. Host friends, settle in for a quiet evening, or enjoy the freedom to make each space your own. Outside, the generous backyard gives you room to gather, garden, play, or simply slow down and enjoy a little fresh air. The included sauna adds a welcome touch of relaxation at the end of the day! One of this property's most appealing features is the freedom of having no HOA. You have greater flexibility to personalize your homesite, plus space to keep a boat or trailer at home. For anyone who loves getting out on the water, having your boat close by can make those spontaneous Lowcountry days even easier. The property is also located in FEMA Flood Zone X. There's plenty to enjoy close to home, too! Meet friends at Low Tide Brewing, plan dinner at Wild Olive or The Royal Tern, or explore Johns Island spots like Lost Isle, Minero, and Seanachai Whiskey & Cocktail Bar. The Angel Oak Tree and Johns Island County Park offer more ways to enjoy the outdoors, while Kiawah Island, Seabrook Island, Folly Beach, and Historic Downtown Charleston add even more possibilities for your weekends. Whether you're looking for a primary residence, a second home, or more space to enjoy the Johns Island lifestyle, 3367 Dunwick Drive brings together privacy, flexibility, and access to the best of the Lowcountry. Come see how easily you could make it your own!
