Description

Rare opportunity to own an Inman, SC home with 3.85 acres, NO HOA, an in-ground swimming pool, and convenient one-level living. Located in Spartanburg County and zoned for District 6 schools, this well-maintained 3-bedroom, 1.5-bath brick ranch offers the space, privacy, and flexibility buyers are searching for—all within easy reach of shopping, dining, schools, and everyday conveniences. Inside, the traditional one-story floor plan provides comfortable and functional living spaces. A welcoming formal living room offers space for visiting with family and friends, while the dedicated dining room is ready for holiday meals and special gatherings. The spacious kitchen features abundant cabinet and counter space for meal preparation, storage, and everyday living. The cozy den is anchored by a beautiful brick masonry fireplace, creating an inviting place to relax on cool Carolina evenings. An oversized laundry room adds valuable storage and convenience, while the enclosed back porch provides a peaceful setting for morning coffee, casual entertaining, or enjoying views of the private backyard and surrounding acreage. Outside, this Inman acreage property truly stands apart. Spend warm South Carolina summers relaxing beside the sparkling in-ground pool, create a large garden, enjoy outdoor recreation, or take advantage of the possibilities offered by nearly four acres. With no homeowners association, the property provides added freedom and flexibility for buyers looking for more land, privacy, and room to pursue outdoor hobbies. Whether you are searching for a Spartanburg County home with acreage, a brick ranch with a swimming pool, a large lot with no HOA, or a peaceful property with room to spread out, this home offers a hard-to-find combination of features. Enjoy the tranquility of country-style living without giving up convenient access to Inman and Spartanburg shopping, restaurants, healthcare, and major commuter routes. Schedule your private showing and discover the space, privacy, and possibilities waiting on this exceptional 3.85-acre Inman property
