Description

Welcome to 372 Bayou Loop, a newly constructed, fully furnished 3-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom townhome located in the serene enclave of The Cove at Glenns Bay. Combining modern low-country elegance with maximum investment flexibility, this home is engineered to adapt seamlessly to your lifestyle whether you are searching for an primary full-time residence, an income-generating short-term vacation rental, or a steady long-term investment property. Situated just 2 miles from the sandy shores of Surfside Beach and the Atlantic Ocean, you can be on the beach, soaking up the sun, or strolling the Surfside Beach Fishing Pier in less than five minutes. Nestled right off Highway 17, the property offers effortless access to the area's finest lifestyle amenities, including the dining and shopping at Sayebrook Town Center, the vibrant entertainment of The Market Common, and the iconic dining along the Murrells Inlet MarshWalk. Generously sized light-filled living space designed for both daily comfort and guest hosting. Complete with contemporary finishes, high-end flooring, stainless steel appliances, in-unit washer and dryer, and stylish modern furnishings. Features a private 1-car attached garage for extra storage, beach gear, or golf cart parking. Enjoy low-maintenance coastal living with top-rated nearby schools and a quiet neighborhood atmosphere. Short-Term Vacation Rental (STR): Capitalize on high seasonal demand from beachgoers, golf groups, and vacationers seeking a modern retreat just minutes from the coast. Long-Term Rental Property: Tap into Horry County's thriving long-term rental market with a low-maintenance, turn-key unit that attracts reliable, high-quality tenants. Whether you're looking to put down roots, lock in a vacation getaway, or add a flexible income generator to your real estate portfolio, 372 Bayou Loop delivers location, style, and opportunity.
