Description

Beautifully maintained 3-bedroom, 2-bath home situated on 1.821 manicured acres with picturesque views of Hogback Mountain and Glassy Mountain. This property is truly picture-perfect, offering a combination of mountain scenery, timeless craftsmanship, and distinctive character inside and out. Step inside to find old-school pegged hardwood floors and incredible hand-hewn beams reclaimed from Fews Chapel Church, adding warmth, history, and architectural character you simply won't find in newer construction. Gas logs create a cozy focal point in the main living area. The fully sealed basement offers excellent additional space and features a wood-burning stove along with access to the one-car garage. Whether used for storage, a workshop, hobbies, or future possibilities, the basement adds tremendous versatility. Outside, the meticulously maintained lawn and beautiful mountain backdrop make this property every bit as impressive as the interior. From the historic beams and pegged hardwood floors to the nearly two acres of manicured grounds and mountain views, 3858 N. Highway 101 is a special property with a character and setting all its own.
