Description

128 acres of gorgeous, usable South Carolina countryside—complete with a productive hay farm, multiple outbuildings, and a beautiful all-brick home—make this a truly rare opportunity. Currently operating as a hay farm, this exceptional property offers expansive open fields, sweeping views, and the kind of space and versatility that is increasingly difficult to find. NO HOA!!At the heart of the property sits a beautiful all-brick home with more than 2,500 square feet, offering plenty of room to enjoy peaceful country living. Multiple outbuildings provide valuable space for farm equipment, storage, hobbies, livestock, or future projects, while two additional septic systems add even more flexibility to the property. Whether you envision continuing the hay operation, creating a family estate, establishing an equestrian property, or simply enjoying the space and privacy, the possibilities are endless. This is country living at its best, all within reach of Orangeburg, Lexington, Columbia, and Charleston. You do not want to miss this one-of-a-kind property—schedule your viewing today!
