Description

This classic ranch-style home offers plenty of space, character, and opportunity to make it your own. A long covered front porch welcomes you inside, where rich dark flooring carries through much of the home and an open, spacious layout provides plenty of room for everyday living and entertaining. The large living area is filled with character, featuring crown molding, a ceiling fan, decorative columns, and a striking black brick fireplace with an extended hearth and wood mantel. The kitchen offers an abundance of cabinetry, extensive counter space, recessed lighting, a double sink, and a breakfast bar that opens to the adjoining dining area which offers plenty of room for a table and features a built-in corner cabinet, while sliding glass doors provide easy access to the covered carport. The primary bedroom offers a comfortable amount of space with dark flooring and multiple windows providing natural light. The room also jsut steps away from one of the bathrooms. The generously sized ensuite features a walk-in shower, tile flooring, vanity, additional cabinetry for storage, and plenty of room for adding your own finishing touches. The large backyard provides room to spread out and includes a detached storage building/workshop for lawn equipment, tools, hobbies, or additional storage. Mature trees add shade around the property. With its generous living areas, fireplace, covered front and rear outdoor spaces, large yard, and detached storage, this home is ready for you. Buyer is resposnisble for verification.
