Description

This coastal home is just minutes from Garden City Beach, and offers modern finishes, a bright interior, and an easy golf-cart ride straight to the sand. This property features stylish LVP flooring throughout, refreshed kitchen and bathroom spaces, a new main HVAC system, lawn irrigation, and an oversized yard that provides extra outdoor space for relaxing or entertaining. Located close to the shoreline, this home makes beach living effortless—load up the golf cart and enjoy the ocean breeze within minutes. Even better, the property sits in an area with no required flood insurance, creating long-term affordability and peace of mind. The layout offers comfortable living spaces perfect for full-time living, a second home, or a vacation retreat. Buyers will love the convenient access to shopping, medical facilities, dining, and the Murrells Inlet MarshWalk—one of the most popular destinations along the South Carolina coast. With upgraded features, a new HVAC system, and prime proximity to Garden City Beach, this home stands out as a strong value in today's coastal market.
