Description

Build your vision on this beautiful 1.31-acre property at 421 Pat Road, nestled in a quiet and peaceful neighborhood! With the majority of the property already cleared, you can spend less time preparing the land and more time bringing your dream home to life. Whether you're ready to build now or want to take your time planning the perfect space, this property boasts plenty of room and flexibility. Looking for a place to stay while you build? The RV on the property is also available for purchase for $55,000 via bill of sale, making it a convenient option for temporary living during construction. Once your dream home is complete, the RV could continue to serve as an excellent additional space for visiting family, friends, guests, or extra accommodations. With its peaceful setting, usable acreage, and endless potential, this is an opportunity you won't want to miss. Come see 421 Pat Road before it's gone!
