Description

Welcome home to 4248 Lavender Lane, tucked into the established Plantation Point section of Windsor Hill. This well-kept 3-bedroom, 2-bath ranch sits high on a quiet street and immediately feels like more house than the price suggests. Out front, an oversize driveway gives you room most homes in this price range can't match -- plenty of extra parking beyond the attached two-car garage, with enough space to comfortably park a boat or trailer. Inside, a wood-burning fireplace anchors the family room, and the finished FROG adds flexible bonus space for a home office, playroom, or guest retreat. The owner's suite is generously sized with a walk-in closet -- a genuinely large main bedroom, not an afterthought. Step out back to a private, fully fenced yard built for entertaining: a fire pit ready for cool Charleston evenings and a covered back porch just waiting to be screened in for year-round enjoyment. Add in mature landscaping and lighting out front, and this is a home that's move-in ready with room to make it your own. Convenient to Boeing, Bosch, Joint Base Charleston, and just minutes from shopping and dining -- mark it as a favorite, and schedule your showing today! Some photos are virtually staged.
