Description

A rare opportunity to build in an established Columbia neighborhood. This vacant residential lot previously held a single-family home that was removed in 2024, leaving a cleared, ready-to-build homesite. With utility connections likely already in place from the prior residence (verify with the city/county), this lot offers a head start over raw, undeveloped land. Located in a convenient area close to local schools, shopping, and downtown Columbia, 5224 Middleton St is well-suited for a custom home build, spec home, or investment property. Whether you're a builder looking for your next project or a buyer ready to design your dream home, this lot provides flexibility and potential in a desirable setting. We are requesting highest and best at this time. The deadline for the highest and best offers to be submitted will be Thursday 9/3/26 @ 1pm EST.
