Description

Conveniently located on Deadfall Road near downtown Silverstreet, this one-acre property offers several improvements already in place. The lot has been partially cleared for a homesite with a driveway in place. There is an existing camper with covered sitting area included with the sale. There is a storage shed, a county security light pole and electrical service for camper already in place. There is public water available and a septic system is available but not installed. This would make a great weekend getaway or a starting point for a permanent home! Disclaimer: CMLS has not reviewed and, therefore, does not endorse vendors who may appear in listings.
