The thoughtfully designed floor plan features a luxurious primary suite with a spacious walk in closet and spa inspired en suite bathroom, a private guest bedroom and full bath, and a versatile flex room that is perfect for a home office, den, or additional guest room. The open concept kitchen flows easily into the dining and living area, ending with the screened in porch overlooking a peaceful wooded backdrop. An attached two car garage on a loop street with minimal through traffic and additional guest parking add even more to the location's appeal!
