Description

Fine Lowcountry living within premier creekfront community! Custom built in 2018, this enchanting 5-bedroom, 4-plus bath retreat in gated Collins Creek Landing offers distinctive charm and elegance within a Southern haven. The welcoming two-story floor plan boasts functionality, style, and comfort. Single-level living is possible with the common areas, that include a study, laundry/mudroom and screened porch, plus the primary bedroom suite all located on the first floor. The great room, with soaring coffered ceiling, balustrade balcony and bank of transom-topped windows, is like stepping into an expansive yet cozy sunlit atrium. The gourmet kitchen does not miss a beat and provides a perfect balance to the open-concept living. Gorgeous reclaimed antique pine wood floors are one of many fine custom details found throughout. Other items on this list include inlaid shiplap finishes, one-of-a-kind cypress fireplace mantles, deep tray ceilings, wrought iron balusters, built-in custom shelving, granite and quartz countertops, and plantation shutters. Two beautiful fireplaces enhance the ambiance of this home, providing a gas fireplace in the great room and wood-burning fireplace on the screened porch where there is a built-in grilling nook and long lovely view over the lake. Additional home features include a finished bonus room over the garage, smart home technology, whole house sound system, LED light fixtures, tankless water heater, Trane HVAC, whole-house generator, fenced yard, circular driveway, and attached 3-car garage. Collins Creek Landing offers exceptional amenities beginning with exclusive access to the Waccamaw River via the boat launch with day dock. Other amenities include the clubhouse with kitchen, pool and playground, a nature trail, and homeowner boat storage. Enjoy proximity to some of the finest beaches along the east coast. Myrtle Beach and the international airport is only a 15-mile drive but a world away!
