Description

The classic profile of a single-story home defines this residence located in the Cherrydale section of Greenville. Situated on a 0.2-acre lot, this property features two bedrooms and one full bathroom within 876 square feet of living area. Inside, the home includes improvements that provide a pantry and counter top space, alongside a gas stove and range. These interior features offer practical utility for daily cooking and food storage. The added provision of gas along with electricity provide ability to still have heat and cooking ability during any power outage. Outdoor elements include a front porch that provides space to relax in the evenings. The property also features an enclosed carport with an added back door on the carport.
