Description

Nestled in the heart of Radcliffeborough, this charming two-story condominium offers the chance to make a piece of historic Charleston your own. Built in 1830, the home features 2 bedrooms, 1.5 bathrooms, original hardwood floors throughout much of the home, a newly replaced HVAC system, and one off-street parking space. Imagine morning coffee before walking to class or work, afternoons strolling King Street, and dinner with friends just blocks from home. With CofC, MUSC, Marion Square, dining, shopping, and historic landmarks nearby, Charleston is right outside your front door.
