Description

Welcome home to this truly unique property, where space, versatility, and opportunity come together! Featuring two residences, a horse barn with pastures, and an additional graded homesite, this property offers the flexibility to create the lifestyle you've been looking for. The main home has been beautifully refreshed with all new flooring, fresh interior and exterior paint, and a completely renovated kitchen, creating a bright, updated feel while maintaining the warmth and character of the home. For horse lovers, the property is already equipped with a dedicated barn and pastures, with plenty of acreage to enjoy. Whether you dream of keeping horses, creating your own mini farm, enjoying peaceful country living, or simply having more privacy and room to spread out, this property offers the space to make it happen. Adding even more versatility is a second manufactured home located at 681 Pleasant View Dr. At only approximately three years old, this newer residence is a tremendous addition to the property and offers a variety of possibilities, including space for extended family, guests, or other uses to fit the new owner's needs. And the possibilities don't stop there! An additional graded lot offers potential for another homesite or manufactured home, providing even more flexibility for the future. Two residences, over 7 acres, a horse barn, pastures, and an additional prepared homesite all together on one remarkable property. Not to mention being extremely close to schools and shopping. Opportunities with this much space and versatility are hard to find. Come experience the peaceful setting, imagine the possibilities, and see what makes this property so special.
