Description

Privacy is the defining luxury of this upgraded Summerwood, set on a premium wooded lot with no homes behind it. Currently the least expensive Summerwood on the market, this three bedroom, two bath home offers exceptional value without compromising on its setting or finishes. The kitchen features quartz countertops, KitchenAid appliances and a gas range. Crown molding, upgraded half wall millwork and ceiling fans continue throughout the main living spaces. The primary suite includes a tray ceiling and a zero entry walk in shower finished with upgraded tile. An EZ Breeze lanai offers a comfortable place to enjoy the wooded backdrop throughout the seasons. Extended by four feet, the garage includes a dedicated golf cart cubby, stationary sink and additional space for storage or a workshop. A whole house water filtration system, power surge breaker and CPI security system add comfort and convenience. Thoughtfully upgraded and remarkably private, this home offers a rare combination of quality and value in Del Webb. Del Webb at Grande Dunes offers an unmatched coastal lifestyle with exceptional amenities designed for active living. Residents enjoy a spectacular resort style pool overlooking the Intracoastal Waterway, an indoor pool, state of the art fitness center, pickleball and tennis courts, bocce, a full time Lifestyle Director, and a vibrant calendar of social events. Homeowners also enjoy exclusive access to the private Grande Dunes Ocean Club featuring oceanfront dining, an Olympic size pool with food and beverage service, along with the many amenities that make Grande Dunes one of Myrtle Beach's most prestigious communities, including championship golf courses, a deep water marina, miles of walking and biking trails, and outstanding dining. Come experience the lifestyle that has made Del Webb at Grande Dunes one of the most sought after communities along the Grand Strand. Schedule your private showing today!
