Description

Welcome to 768 Hobonny Loop in Longs, a 3-bedroom, 2-bath home where open living, thoughtful details and a fully fenced backyard come together in one easy-to-enjoy package. Walk through the door and look up. A vaulted ceiling gives the main living room an immediate sense of volume, while the open floor plan keeps the kitchen, dining and living spaces connected. It's a layout that works just as well for a quiet Tuesday night as it does when everybody somehow ends up at your house. The kitchen keeps you in the conversation instead of tucked away from it, with granite countertops, generous workspace and an easy flow into the main living area. Then there's the primary suite. Spacious and set apart, it gets an architectural upgrade from a tray ceiling and includes its own private en-suite bath—creating a comfortable retreat at the end of the day. Throughout the home, details like LVP flooring, custom molding and stone accents give the space more personality than you'd expect from an ordinary three-bedroom floor plan. And out back? Your own fenced-in piece of the outdoors. Room to grill. Garden. Toss a ball. Set up the patio furniture. Let the weekend unfold without leaving home. The screened porch gives you another place to slow things down, while irrigation helps keep the outdoor space looking the part. Best of all, you're tucked into Longs with convenient access to shopping, dining, major routes and the Grand Strand beaches—close enough to enjoy the coast without needing to live in the middle of the beach traffic. 768 HOBONNY LOOP | LONGS, SC 3 Bedrooms • 2 Baths • Approx. 1,505 Heated Sq.
