Description

Discover this unique 4.49-acre buildable property tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac in the desirable All Saints Landing community of Conway, South Carolina. This expansive tract offers no HOA restrictions and features a small pond, power and water connections, and two existing septic tanks already on site. Additional highlights include multiple carports, RV hookups, and a secondary non-dwelling structure (not permitted for residential use), providing excellent flexibility for storage or workshop space -- All furniture included. Zoned CFA (Commercial Forest Agriculture)—one of Horry County's most versatile and sought-after zoning classifications—this property is perfect for those seeking room to store RVs, boats, or recreational equipment. Enjoy the convenience of a county-maintained boat landing just minutes away, with easy access to Highway 22, the dining and entertainment of downtown Conway, and a short drive to the beaches of Myrtle Beach.
