Description

New fall pricing brings the move-in ready Taylor Plan at Hattie's Crossing to $349,900. Thoughtfully designed to make exceptional use of every square foot, the Taylor features a smart, functional layout that lives larger than its footprint. With approximately 1,416 square feet, the open main level features a kitchen with granite countertops overlooking the living and dining areas, creating a comfortable space for everyday living and entertaining. The main-level primary suite provides convenience with dual vanities, a spacious walk-in closet, and a well-appointed private bath. Upstairs, two additional bedrooms and a full bath create flexible space for family, guests, or a home office. A private side patio extends the living space outdoors, creating the perfect spot for grilling, morning coffee, or relaxing with friends. Built with durable fiber-cement siding and quality finishes throughout, the Taylor combines low-maintenance living with timeless style. Located in Hattie's Crossing, on the historic site of the former Cayce Grammar School, you'll enjoy a walkable setting just minutes from the Cayce-West Columbia Riverwalk, Steel Hands Brewing, Café Strudel, Piecewise Coffee, Savage Craft Aleworks, Hotworx, and downtown Columbia. As one of the limited remaining homes in this boutique 12-home community, the Taylor provides a rare opportunity to enjoy new construction in one of Cayce's most desirable locations.
