Description

PROFESSIONAL PICS COMING SOON!!! Look no further for a home that feels like it's in the country but only minutes from downtown Lexington. This home has so much character and charm. From beams and ceiling wood in the main living space that came from 1890's home from Lexington! The kitchen is completed with wood panels from the last standing covered bridge in Newberry County! This amazing home is situated on an acre and has a finished basement that could be a rental opportunity, VRBO or Inlaw suite. This home has 3 bedrooms on the main level, including the master. There are 2 full baths with the master bath located in the primary suite which includes a walk in shower. The main level has a formal dining room and two large living spaces with endless possibilities. In the finished basement which can be accessed through the home or a private entrance from outside, has a kitchen, full bath, living space and two bedrooms! A gorgeous front porch for sipping coffee and a large deck on the back for relaxing in the evening. Did I mention there is a 40x60 covered shed for a boat or RV, and a workshop! This home has it all! HVAC less than 2 years old! Disclaimer: CMLS has not reviewed and, therefore, does not endorse vendors who may appear in listings.
