Description

Coastal living takes on a whole new meaning at 867 Murray Ave, a beautifully maintained townhome ideally positioned in the heart of Market Common. Combining timeless character, thoughtful updates, and an unbeatable location, this residence places you just minutes from the best of Myrtle Beach living. Step inside and you'll immediately notice the craftsmanship throughout. Beautiful craftsman-style woodwork, updated flooring, refreshed stairs, and numerous improvements completed within the past two years create a warm, inviting atmosphere with a level of character that's difficult to find. The spacious floor plan provides plenty of room to relax and entertain, while maintaining a comfortable and welcoming feel throughout. The home offers two generously sized bedrooms, one room designated as an office, two full bathrooms, and two additional half baths, providing exceptional convenience for both everyday living and entertaining guests. Multiple walk-in closets throughout the home provide abundant storage, while the community-maintained landscaping means you can enjoy the outdoors without the upkeep of a traditional yard. Perhaps the greatest feature of 867 Murray Ave is the lifestyle that comes with its location. From your front door, you're just a short golf cart ride from Myrtle Beach State Park and one of the most beautiful stretches of beach along the South Carolina coast. You'll also be just a golf cart ride from an impressive community amenity center featuring a 7,000-square-foot swimming pool, two large Jacuzzi, two enclosed toddler pools, a 430-linear-foot lazy river, and a 2,000-square-foot pool house complete with a kitchen, fitness center, locker rooms, and showers. Market Common's exceptional selection of restaurants, coffee shops, shopping, entertainment, fitness studios, and recreational activities is also right outside your doorstep. Spend your morning grabbing coffee and exploring the neighborhood, head to the beach for the afternoon, and enjoy dinner and entertainment in the evening—all without going far from home. For added convenience, Myrtle Beach International Airport is only about a 10-minute drive away, making travel and welcoming visiting friends and family effortless. 867 Murray Ave isn't simply a place to live—it's an opportunity to embrace a relaxed, connected coastal lifestyle with the beach, recreation, dining, and entertainment all within easy reach. Come experience this exceptional Market Common townhome and discover what makes this location so special.
