Description

Freshly updated three bedroom, two bath ranch on a half acre wooded homesite in Quail Hollow, featuring an updated kitchen, hardwood floors throughout the main living areas, and a backyard built for relaxing or entertaining. A covered front porch with rocking chair space and mature landscaping welcomes you inside to an open living area with a brick fireplace and hardwood floors. The kitchen has been thoughtfully updated with white and gray cabinetry, black granite counters, subway tile backsplash, and stainless appliances, and an island with pendant lighting. A sunny breakfast nook with French doors opens straight to the back deck. Out back, a covered deck steps down to an open patio with a small koi pond and lush, established landscaping, all enclosed for privacy. An above ground pool and a storage building round out the outdoor space, set against a backdrop of mature trees that give the whole yard a private, tucked away feel. To top it off, the windows and siding were replaced in 2023 and the HVAC system was replaced in 2025.
